Spirit Creek Gardens introduces Seeds of Kindness

Spirit Creek Gardens is developing Seeds of Kindness, an experience that connects a seed gift with a personal dedication and an optional planting story online.

The proposed kits include seeds, a unique QR activation card and a thank-you certificate. Buyers can request gifts with printed occasion messages, while recipients decide whether to activate a page and share their planting moment. Personal stories live on SCGardens; kit information is available through Spirit Creek Gardens.

The program is accepting unpaid, non-binding reservations and custom enquiries while seed sourcing, regional suitability, packet coverage and fulfillment are finalized. No launch or delivery date has been announced. Single kit prices are C$35, C$45 and C$60 for Small, Medium and Large, with delivery and applicable tax extra.

Story pages are available only while the program operates. Posting is optional, and neither planting success nor environmental outcomes are guaranteed.

Short description

Seeds of Kindness pairs a seed gift with a personal dedication and an optional QR-linked planting story on SCGardens. The Spirit Creek Gardens program is in prelaunch, accepting unpaid, non-binding enquiries while seed supply and delivery arrangements are finalized.

Images and attribution

Request approved logos, product images or interviews through the media contact form. Finished physical kit photography is not supplied in this edition. Label any future concept artwork clearly as a concept. Participant names, photos, videos and stories require permission for republication. No customer data is included in this kit.

Media FAQ

Is the product available to buy?

Not yet. Current reservations and enquiries are unpaid and non-binding. Confirmed mixes, prices, delivery estimates and purchase terms will come before payment.

Are all seeds suitable everywhere?

No. Mixes must suit the planting region, sunlight, moisture and labelled zone system. Actual species, seed weight and coverage are still to be confirmed with suppliers.

Does the recipient have to share?

No. Activation and posting are optional. Private, link-only and reviewed public sharing are available; the community map is optional.

Is the story page permanent?

No. Pages last only while the program operates. Participants should keep their own copies of their memories.

Can companies and families participate?

Custom quantities and groups can be discussed through an enquiry. Recurring gifts and anonymous sponsorship are separate proposed options; requests start no billing.

What does this verify?

Stories and reported plantings are participant statements. Certificates recognize participation, not independently verified planting, environmental impact or successful growth.

Where should people plant?

In an appropriate garden or container, with permission and according to verified seed instructions. The experience does not authorize planting on others' land.

Where can media obtain approved materials?

Use scgardens.ca/garden/?view=quote with "Media enquiry", your outlet, deadline and the materials or interview you need.
